KEY RISKS AND RISK MANAGEMENT

You should not invest in this Fund if you do not understand or are not comfortable with the accompanying risks.

Market/Price Risk:	The possibility for an investor to experience losses due to changes in the market prices of stocks/equities. It refers to the portfolio's exposure to marked-to-market valuation due to market price fluctuations of the stocks/equities.
Liquidity Risk:	The possibility for an investor to experience losses due to the inability to sell or convert assets into cash immediately or in instances where conversion to cash is possible but at a price that could result in a loss. This may be caused by low trading volume due to different reasons such as securities with small or few outstanding issues, absence of buyers and/or sellers (limited buy/sell activity) or underdeveloped capital market.
Credit Risk / Default Risk:	The possibility for an investor to experience losses due to a borrower's failure to pay principal and/or interest in a timely manner on instruments such as bonds, loans, or other forms of fixed income security which the borrower issued. This inability of the borrower or counterparty to make good on its financial obligations may have resulted from adverse changes in its financial condition thus, lowering credit quality of the security, and consequently lowering the price (market/price risk) which contributes to the difficulty in selling such security.
Reinvestment Risk:	The possibility of having lower returns or earnings when funds mature and are reinvested. Investors in the UITF who redeem and realize their gains run the risk of reinvesting their funds in an alternative investment outlet with lower yields. Similarly, the UIT fund manager is faced with the risk of not being able to find better yielding alternative investment outlets as some of the securities in the fund matures.
Index Tracking Risk:	The possibility for the Fund not being able to achieve a level of return that closely mirrors the index being tracked due to operational and fund management expenses.
Other Risks:	Your participation in the UITFs may be further exposed to the risk of any actual or potential conflicts of interest in the handling of in-house or related party transactions by Metrobank. These transactions may include own-bank deposits; purchase of own-institution or affiliate obligations (stocks, mortgages); purchase of assets from or sales to own institution, directors, officers, subsidiaries, affiliates or other related interests/parties; or purchases or sales between fiduciary/managed accounts.

The Fund invests only in high-credit quality assets which are evaluated using a rigorous internal scoring model required under the Trustee's accreditation process and BSP regulations. Internal risk limits and position limits together with regulatory exposure limits are monitored, reviewed and strictly adhered to on a daily basis. The Fund may also use financial derivatives solely for hedging risk exposures.

THE UIT FUND IS NOT A DEPOSIT AND IS NOT INSURED BY THE PHILIPPINE DEPOSIT INSURANCE CORPORATION (PDIC).

OUTLOOK AND STRATEGY

Since bottoming out in October 2023, the PSEI has been on a steady uptrend, rallying +4.5% MoM to close at 6,944.71 in February, pushing the index up +7.7% YTD. This upward movement was fueled by improving macroeconomic indicators domestically, stable corporate earnings releases, and robust foreign inflows. Notably, the banking (+8.6% MoM) and industrials (+8.6%) sectors led the gains, while properties (-2.7%) and mining (-8.0%) ended in the red. ICT emerged as the top index gainer primarily due to foreign inflows and anticipation of strong core earnings results. Average volume turnover for the month stayed tepid at P5.2bn as investors lacked conviction beyond 7,000. On the flipside, foreigners were consistently buyers in the local equities market by USD129mn, extending their buying streak to 4 months.

In terms of corporate earnings, most of the nine PCOMP index constituents that reported 2023 full-year earnings fell within market expectations. However, SCC lagged estimates due to lower average selling prices despite improved coal sales in 4Q23. Banks, particularly BDO, BPI, and MBT, reported robust earnings, benefiting from the high-interest rate environment in the previous year. MBT surprised with a larger dividend payout, translating to an 8% dividend yield. Property companies also showed improvement, with ALI driven by better property development revenues while SMPH was lifted by its mall segment.

On the macroeconomic front, the BSP maintained its policy rates unchanged in its first Monetary Board meeting for 2024. The BSP slightly adjusted its inflation estimates, signaling the need to keep monetary policy tight to anchor inflation expectations amid various risks, including geopolitical tensions, higher rice and electricity prices due to El Nino, and increased gasoline prices. On that note, February's inflation print surpassed expectations, at 3.4% YoY versus 3.0% market consensus and January's print of 2.8%, driven by a significant increase in rice inflation, the fastest in 15 years.

The Philippine economy's stable growth, disinflation outlook, and potential 2024 policy easing offer an optimistic investment landscape. We project corporate earnings to grow by 6% in 2024, considering a 13x PE for FY2024, which puts our FY2024 PSEI target at 7,400.
