KEY RISKS AND RISK MANAGEMENT

You should not invest in this Fund if you do not understand or are not comfortable with the accompanying risks.

Market/Price Risk:	The possibility for an investor to experience losses due to changes in the market prices of stocks/equities. It refers to the portfolio's exposure to marked-to-market valuation due to market price fluctuations of the stocks/equities.
Liquidity Risk:	The possibility for an investor to experience losses due to the inability to sell or convert assets into cash immediately or in instances where conversion to cash is possible but at a price that could result in a loss. This may be caused by low trading volume due to different reasons such as securities with small or few outstanding issues, absence of buyers and/or sellers (limited buy/sell activity) or underdeveloped capital market.
Credit Risk / Default Risk:	The possibility for an investor to experience losses due to a borrower's failure to pay principal and/or interest in a timely manner on instruments such as bonds, loans, or other forms of fixed income security which the borrower issued. This inability of the borrower or counterparty to make good on its financial obligations may have resulted from adverse changes in its financial condition thus, lowering credit quality of the security, and consequently lowering the price (market/price risk) which contributes to the difficulty in selling such security.
Foreign Exchange Risk:	The possibility for an investor to experience losses due to fluctuations in foreign exchange rates. The exchange rates depend upon a variety of global and local factors, e.g. interest rates, economic performance, and political developments.
Country Risk:	The possibility for an investor to experience losses arising from investments in securities issued by/in foreign countries due to the political, economic and social structures of these countries. There are risks in foreign investments due to the possible internal and external conflicts, currency devaluations, foreign ownership limitations and tax increases of the foreign country involved which are difficult to predict but must be taken into account in making such investments.
Index Tracking Risk:	The possibility for the Fund not being able to achieve a level of return that closely mirrors the index being tracked due to operational and fund management expenses.
Other Risks:	Your participation in the UITFs may be further exposed to the risk of any actual or potential conflicts of interest in the handling of in-house or related party transactions by Metrobank. These transactions may include own-bank deposits; purchase of own-institution or affiliate obligations (stocks, mortgages); purchase of assets from or sales to own institution, directors, officers, subsidiaries, affiliates or other related interests/parties; or purchases or sales between fiduciary/managed accounts.

The Fund invests only in high-credit quality assets which are evaluated using a rigorous internal scoring model required under the Trustee's accreditation process and BSP regulations. Internal risk limits and position limits together with regulatory exposure limits are monitored, reviewed and strictly adhered to on a daily basis. The Fund may also use financial derivatives solely for hedging risk exposures.

THE UIT FUND IS NOT A DEPOSIT AND IS NOT INSURED BY THE PHILIPPINE DEPOSIT INSURANCE CORPORATION (PDIC).

RETURNS CANNOT BE GUARANTEED AND HISTORICAL NAVPU IS FOR ILLUSTRATION OF NAVPU MOVEMENTS/FLUCTUATIONS ONLY. WHEN REDEEMING, THE PROCEEDS MAY BE WORTH LESS THAN THE ORIGINAL INVESTMENT AND ANY LOSSES WILL BE SOLELY FOR THE ACCOUNT OF THE CLIENT.

OUTLOOK AND STRATEGY

The fund decreased by 0.65% for the month of January. Eurozone was subject to early profit taking entering 2024, but regained lost ground as the ECB tilted to a dovish stance.

The market's over-optimism on rate cuts ignites volatility.

The European Central Bank (ECB) again kept rates unchanged at 4.5% to 4.75%. ECB President Christine Lagarde raised hopes that a shift to looser policy is on the horizon. Lagarde mentioned that wage growth was slowing, indicating an ongoing disinflationary process which tilts economic growth to the downside. The ECB hinted on policy easing in 3Q-2024.

The Eurozone dodged recession as the economic bloc grew 0% QoQ in 4Q-2023, an improvement from the -0.1% print for 3Q-2024. The expansion in Italy and Spain offset the slowdown in the powerhouse Germany. Disinflation is currently sustained as Core CPI YoY declined further to 3.4% from 3.6% the month prior. Producer prices improved for a second consecutive month, declining by 8.8% YoY, an improvement from the previous 9.4% drop. Retail sales contracted by 1.1% YoY, a slight improvement from the 1.2% decline in December. Both manufacturing and services PMI saw an improvement month-on-month but remained into contraction, printing at 44.4 and 48.8; respectively. For the month, the region saw improving macro-data, but is far from a rebound. Slowing inflation and frail growth increases bets for policy easing in 2024.

The tug-of-war between recessionary and sticky inflationary pressures continued to generate a stagflation like environment in Europe, unemployment even improved to 6.4% as household purchasing power erodes, also contributing to the sustained decline in consumer confidence. It is likely that the region will remain in a state of stagflation as long as jobs remain sticky, a weakening in jobs will likely push the zone into a more pronounced recession.

After coming off one of the strongest year-end rallies among regional peers, Europe saw heavy profit taking entering 2024, but managed to close the month unchanged as the ECB hinted on coming policy easing in 2024. Eurozone equities are currently in bullish consolidation at key resistance levels, a break from either the top or bottom will dictate the movement in coming months. In January, global equities continued to push higher, powered by the magnificent 7 as the "AI chase" continued. Although markets have become severely overbought, it is important to note that markets can stay irrational for extended periods, with valuations extending beyond 10-year historical averages. Healthcare has also emerged a prominent theme as the weight loss drugs becomes the consumer's solution to obesity.

The fund is capitalizing on favorable dollar time deposit rates, offering a 60-day yield of 5.20%.
