KEY RISKS AND RISK MANAGEMENT

You should not invest in this Fund if you do not understand or are not comfortable with the accompanying risks.

Interest Rate Risk:	The possibility for an investor to experience losses due to changes in interest rates. The purchase and sale of a debt instrument may result in profit or loss because the value of a debt instrument changes inversely with prevailing interest rates.
Market/Price Risk:	The possibility for an investor to experience losses due to changes in the market prices of stocks/equities. It refers to the portfolio's exposure to marked-to-market valuation due to market price fluctuations of the stocks/equities.
Liquidity Risk:	The possibility for an investor to experience losses due to the inability to sell or convert assets into cash immediately or in instances where conversion to cash is possible but at a price that could result in a loss. This may be caused by low trading volume due to different reasons such as securities with small or few outstanding issues, absence of buyers and/or sellers (limited buy/sell activity) or underdeveloped capital market.
Credit Risk / Default Risk:	The possibility for an investor to experience losses due to a borrower's failure to pay principal and/or interest in a timely manner on instruments such as bonds, loans, or other forms of fixed income security which the borrower issued. This inability of the borrower or counterparty to make good on its financial obligations may have resulted from adverse changes in its financial condition thus, lowering credit quality of the security, and consequently lowering the price (market/price risk) which contributes to the difficulty in selling such security.
Reinvestment Risk:	The possibility of having lower returns or earnings when funds mature and are reinvested. Investors in the UITF who redeem and realize their gains run the risk of reinvesting their funds in an alternative investment outlet with lower yields. Similarly, the UIT fund manager is faced with the risk of not being able to find better yielding alternative investment outlets as some of the securities in the fund matures.
Foreign Exchange Risk:	The possibility for an investor to experience losses due to fluctuations in foreign exchange rates. The exchange rates depend upon a variety of global and local factors, e.g. interest rates, economic performance, and political developments.
Country Risk:	The possibility for an investor to experience losses arising from investments in securities issued by/in foreign countries due to the political, economic and social structures of these countries. There are risks in foreign investments due to the possible internal and external conflicts, currency devaluations, foreign ownership limitations and tax increases of the foreign country involved which are difficult to predict but must be taken into account in making such investments.
Other Risks:	Your participation in the UITFs may be further exposed to the risk of any actual or potential conflicts of interest in the handling of in-house or related party transactions by Metrobank. These transactions may include own-bank deposits; purchase of own-institution or affiliate obligations (stocks, mortgages); purchase of assets from or sales to own institution, directors, officers, subsidiaries, affiliates or other related interests/parties; or purchases or sales between fiduciary/managed accounts.

The Fund invests only in high-credit quality assets which are evaluated using a rigorous internal scoring model required under the Trustee's accreditation process and BSP regulations. Internal risk limits and position limits together with regulatory exposure limits are monitored, reviewed and strictly adhered to on a daily basis. The Fund may also use financial derivatives solely for hedging risk exposures.

THE UIT FUND IS NOT A DEPOSIT AND IS NOT INSURED BY THE PHILIPPINE DEPOSIT INSURANCE CORPORATION (PDIC). RETURNS CANNOT BE GUARANTEED AND HISTORICAL NAVPU IS FOR ILLUSTRATION OF NAVPU MOVEMENTS/FLUCTUATIONS ONLY. WHEN REDEEMING, THE PROCEEDS MAY BE WORTH LESS THAN THE ORIGINAL INVESTMENT AND ANY LOSSES WILL BE SOLELY FOR THE ACCOUNT OF THE CLIENT. THE TRUSTEE IS NOT LIABLE FOR ANY LOSS UNLESS UPON WILLFUL DEFAULT, BAD FAITH OR GROSS NEGLIGENCE.

Artisan's monthly commentary

Market overview:

The MSCI AC World Index returned 3.1% in March, bringing the Q1 total to 8.2%. Entering March, markets anticipated a near-certain chance of a rate cut in June by the Fed. However, stronger-than-expected inflation data led to a significant repricing of those expectations. Investors grappled with the timing and trajectory of potential rate cuts as the Fed ultimately maintained the federal funds rate within the 5.25%–5.50% range, while signaling a cumulative 0.75% in rate cuts for the remainder of 2024.

Our portfolio outperformed the MSCI AC World Index in the QTD period. Among our top contributors were Advanced Micro Devices (AMD) and Netflix. There were both positives and negatives to AMD's earnings results. In terms of negatives, the gaming business is weighing on results due to maturing console sales. However, the artificial intelligence momentum around its MI300 GPU offering continues to trend toward our bull case with a growing order book and an updated 2024 revenue projection of $3.5 billion versus $2 billion last quarter. Furthermore, AMD noted strong relative performance results of the chip versus NVIDIA's competing product. While we continue to have high conviction, we trimmed the position due to our valuation discipline.

We continue to believe that streaming will replace linear TV, and part of that migration will include advertising. Netflix's new advertising-supported offering is allowing it to both capture ad revenue and appeal to value-conscious consumers. Also, the company's efforts to convert password-sharing users into paying customers may dramatically expand the subscriber base. Recent earnings results continue to be thesis-affirming with 13 million net new subscribers added in Q4. We also believe the company is now operating in one of the most benign competitive environments in its history and will continue to take price as appropriate.

Among our top detractors were Atlassian and Vestas Wind Systems. Atlassian's earnings results met expectations for cloud revenue growth. However, this was insufficient for investors to support the stock's momentum after strong recent performance. While parts of its cloud business, such as enterprise, are exceeding expectations, there are signs of weakness within small and medium-sized businesses, where pressures persist in paid seat expansions. Vestas remains well positioned to capitalize on the secular trend toward a less carbon[1]intensive world given its ability to produce onshore wind turbines at a low cost not predicated on subsidies. While its margins have been hampered by supply chain instability and cost inflation from raw materials, transport and turbine components, we believe several of these headwinds will prove transitory longer term. The company continues to believe that 10% operating margins by 2025 is achievable, and we will be closely watching developments around pricing power, operating leverage, warranty claims and continued supply chain pressures.
