KEY RISKS AND RISK MANAGEMENT

You should not invest in this Fund if you do not understand or are not comfortable with the accompanying risks.

Interest Rate Risk:	The possibility for an investor to experience losses due to changes in interest rates. The purchase and sale of a debt instrument may result in profit or loss because the value of a debt instrument changes inversely with prevailing interest rates.
Market/Price Risk:	The possibility for an investor to experience losses due to changes in the market prices of bonds. It refers to the portfolio's exposure to marked-to-market valuation due to market price fluctuations of the bonds.
Liquidity Risk:	The possibility for an investor to experience losses due to the inability to sell or convert assets into cash immediately or in instances where conversion to cash is possible but at a price that could result in a loss. This may be caused by low trading volume due to different reasons such as securities with small or few outstanding issues, absence of buyers and/or sellers (limited buy/sell activity) or underdeveloped capital market.
Credit Risk / Default Risk:	The possibility for an investor to experience losses due to a borrower's failure to pay principal and/or interest in a timely manner on instruments such as bonds, loans, or other forms of fixed income security which the borrower issued. This inability of the borrower or counterparty to make good on its financial obligations may have resulted from adverse changes in its financial condition thus, lowering credit quality of the security, and consequently lowering the price (market/price risk) which contributes to the difficulty in selling such security.
Reinvestment Risk:	The possibility of having lower returns or earnings when funds mature and are reinvested. Investors in the UITF who redeem and realize their gains run the risk of reinvesting their funds in an alternative investment outlet with lower yields. Similarly, the UIT fund manager is faced with the risk of not being able to find better yielding alternative investment outlets as some of the securities in the fund matures.
Other Risks:	Your participation in the UITFs may be further exposed to the risk of any actual or potential conflicts of interest in the handling of in-house or related party transactions by Metrobank. These transactions may include own-bank deposits; purchase of own-institution or affiliate obligations (stocks, mortgages); purchase of assets from or sales to own institution, directors, officers, subsidiaries, affiliates or other related interests/parties; or purchases or sales between fiduciary/managed accounts.

The Fund invests only in high-credit quality assets which are evaluated using a rigorous internal scoring model required under the Trustee's accreditation process and BSP regulations. Internal risk limits and position limits together with regulatory exposure limits are monitored, reviewed and strictly adhered to on a daily basis. The Fund may also use financial derivatives solely for hedging risk exposures.

THE UIT FUND IS NOT A DEPOSIT AND IS NOT INSURED BY THE PHILIPPINE DEPOSIT INSURANCE CORPORATION (PDIC).

RETURNS CANNOT BE GUARANTEED AND HISTORICAL NAVPU IS FOR ILLUSTRATION OF NAVPU MOVEMENTS/FLUCTUATIONS ONLY.

WHEN REDEEMING, THE PROCEEDS MAY BE WORTH LESS THAN THE ORIGINAL INVESTMENT AND ANY LOSSES WILL BE SOLELY FOR THE ACCOUNT OF THE CLIENT.

OUTLOOK AND STRATEGY

March has been a month filled with pivotal decisions made by central banks around the world. During the first week, we saw the European Central Bank (ECB) kept their policy rate at a record 4%, with projections showing lower growth and inflation this 2024. ECB Chair Lagarde commented that the committee will know a lot more in June, cautiously laying the ground to potentially lower the rates later this year. By mid-month, we then saw the Bank of England keeping rates on hold at 5.25% and kept its forward guidance unchanged that rates need to stay sufficiently restrictive for an extended period of time. The People's Bank of China (PBOC) also keeping the benchmark lending rates unchanged where the one-year loan prime rate (LPR) was kept at 3.45%, while the five-year LPR was unchanged at 3.95%. While the Swiss National Bank surprised the market by cutting its main interest rate by 25bps 1.50%, the first major central bank to dial back tighter monetary policy aimed at tackling inflation. There was another surprise move from Taiwan's central bank as it raised its policy rate to 2%, wary of continued inflationary pressures. But for all these policy decisions, the main highlight for the month might just well be the policy decisions of the Bank of Japan (BoJ) and by the US FED. The Bank of Japan (BoJ) ended decades of unconventional and aggressive monetary easing and increased its key interest rate from -0.1% to a range of 0%-0.1%. While the Federal Reserve has left interest rates unchanged at 5.25% to 5.50%, as widely expected. The FED expects three rate cuts or at least 75bps cut in 2024 despite sticky inflation. The FOMC members also left the median projection for interest rates at end-2024 at the midpoint between 4.50-4.75%. In local news, March inflation came out at 3.7%, slightly lower than market expectation of 3.8% but above the 3.4% print in February. This is within BSP's forecast range of 3.4% to 4.2%. This month's inflation print was still mainly driven by higher food prices for rice, meat, and fruits. Core inflation was lower at 3.4%, slower than February's print of 3.6%. Most of the activity in the Peso FI space are a reaction to the announcements or events offshore.

The BTr fully accepted all the target size issuances for both the Treasury Bills (T-Bills) and Treasury Bonds (T-Bonds) auctions for the month. Accepted bids for the TBL issuances were flat versus the awarded levels in February, just down by about 6bps across all the 3 tenors offered. For the T-Bond auctions, what was noteworthy was the re-issuance of the 20y FXT2026. The BTr still accepted bids to a high of 6.25%, same as the coupon when it was issued last month. Said re-issuance still has strong market demand as bid to cover ratio was at 2.032x. And in another surprise move, the BTr even accepted bids at a high of 6.274% during the 6y re-issuance of FXT7-70. Most market players are still keen on lengthening duration for the month, as rate cuts for the 2nd half the year remains intact. For the month, we saw yields move sideways with a downward bias, just lower by an average of 3bps MoM. Both the 20y and 25y BVAL were lower by about 5bps MoM. The 20y and 25y BVAL is now at 6.26% vs previous month's BVAL of 6.31%. The BTr already released its 2Q2024 borrowing program, where they plan to issue a total of PhP195Bn in T-Bills and PhP390Bn in T-Bonds, for a total of PhP585Bn for the quarter. For the T-Bonds, the BTr will be issuing securities with tenors 7y, 10y, 15y and 20y in April, May and June. There is just an additional 3y auction in May. We also kept our strategy of maintaining overweight duration versus its benchmark, and keeping cash to a minimum.
